

Teaching 3 Religions an Introduction to Islam, Hinduism and Judaism

5th February 2019, 9.30am – 3.30pm

The practical and inspiring course will improve teachers' and subject leaders subject knowledge and provide them with a variety of engaging and effective strategies for learning about and from these religions. Resources and ideas will be shared, supporting knowledgeable, creative, visual, active and enquiry-based learning for children from 5 to 11.

This course will support teachers in:

- creating a planned learning experience for children in each of these religions
- ensuring progression in teaching about and from Islam, Hinduism and Judaism across the primary age range
- awareness of appropriate learning strategies to deal with challenging topics such as prayer, belief and religion in the community
- using a variety of effective and engaging learning strategies in RE
- feeling more confident when teaching about Islam, Judaism and Hinduism.

During the day you will explore:

- Common concerns: positive and negative ways of representing religions
- Teaching about authentic religion
- What should be taught in KS1? In KS2? in the 3 religions
- Examples of learning activities involving creativity and thinking: belief, celebration and action
- Teaching challenging topics in the 3 religious traditions

“The course is delivered in a very engaging way. I love how it is full of practical ideas to take away and resources to use.”
