

Inspiring Writing

Chris Whitney

Literacy and film education consultant

Picture this: inspiring talk, reading and writing through quality picture books

Tuesday 8th October

9am-4pm

NSPCC National Training Centre

This CPD aims to examine the use of picture books, considering how to integrate them into the curriculum, in order to develop talk, deepen comprehension and inspire writing.

By the end of the course participants will have:

- explored a range of quality picture books for KS1 and 2
- worked through a variety of teaching strategies for use with picture books
- investigated how to plan a teaching sequence for writing based on a quality picture book. An exemplar teaching sequence will be provided

Teach through a film: inspiring and supporting the teaching of reading and writing at KS1 and 2

Friday 8th November

9am-4pm

NSPCC National Training Centre

This CPD aims to demonstrate how to work with film as a vehicle for inspiring and supporting the teaching of reading and writing in the primary curriculum at both KS1 and 2.

By the end of this course participants will have:

- decoded and analysed a short film, understanding its composition
- explored the links between film (as an on-screen) and print text
- investigated a variety of film education teaching approaches
- worked through a two week teaching sequence (provided) based on a short film
- considered the place film in the primary curriculum as a vehicle to inspire and support reading and writing

£60 for 1 day

£100 for both days

Lunch and refreshments included

Click here to book a place

English
Research
Partnership

Leicester
Leicestershire
& Rutland