

Inspirational Leadership

Monday 10th February 2020

9am-4pm

NSPCC National Training Centre

£75 per participant

This course is a must for any teacher, aspiring leader or leader in education.

LESSONS FROM SHAKESPEARE'S HENRY V

Participants will be introduced to the story of Shakespeare's most inspired and inspiring leader, Henry V. Then they will choose the leadership challenges they wish to explore.

Yolanda Vazquez uses mythodrama, a unique form of experiential learning that allows participants to "act in" desired behaviours and attributes. He employs a powerful combination of theatre practice, psychology, mythology and organisational development.

It provides inspiration and learning for lasting change.

The course is a full day and includes refreshments and lunch, please state any special dietary requirements when booking.

Places are limited so book now to avoid disappointment.
