

LLEP area - weekly live apprenticeship vacancies 03 Feb 2020 and creative opportunity for young people aged 16 plus

Happy National Apprenticeship Week 2020!

Please find attached this week's live LLEP area apprenticeship vacancy reports from the ESFA. Young people can register for vacancies via Find an Apprenticeship, <https://www.gov.uk/apply-apprenticeship>; on which email and text alerts can be set up about new apprenticeship vacancies. Please email the National Helpdesk if you would like any help in relation to the vacancy reports. You can access free resources to help teachers, parents, support workers and careers advisers who offer information, advice and guidance about apprenticeships on the GOV.UK website or <https://amazingapprenticeships.com>, like the free Parents Packs or the excellent resource, 101 Amazing Apprenticeship Activities for Schools. Follow @Apprenticeships on Twitter and National Apprenticeship Service on LinkedIn. Twitter <https://twitter.com/Apprenticeships> National Apprenticeship Week 2020 started yesterday and runs until Feb 7; see local NAW 2020 events on <https://nawevents.co.uk/>.

Creative opportunity for 16-25-year olds!

Voice is a magazine and platform for young creatives covering arts, culture, politics and technology, and they are currently recruiting for new Voice Contributors to join the team. If you have students (ideally aged 16 plus) with a passion for art, culture, politics or technology, and have strong opinions that they want the world to hear, then they could consider applying! The details are all at: <https://www.voicemag.uk/become-voice-contributor>. If you have any questions, please email: Emrys Green (emrys@upstartprojects.uk)
